From the Pastor

Hello friends, and happy Easter!

When I wrote last weekend's article, we were all taking our collective deep breath before the plunge into the Triduum. Now we are taking the deep breath after the whole course of liturgical prayer. That is my absolute favorite few days of the year – if you've ever joined in the entire Holy Thursday – Good Friday – Easter Vigil cycle you know it's a marathon and a powerful way to enter the full narrative of Christ's suffering, death, and resurrection. Allow me to offer my deep gratitude to everyone who participated in the considerably choreographed liturgies, from our congregations to our servers to our lectors to our musicians and decorators to the folks who made our extracurriculars like the Easter Brunch and Passion Play happen – you all took Holy Week from “textbook” to “beautiful.” Thank you.

Holy Week is also a significant hinge moment between Lent and Easter. I'll say again that, while Lent is 40-something days long, it is telling that Easter lasts a full fifty days until Pentecost. That's on purpose – it's the Church's way of saying “this moment is too big to squeeze into 25 hours, so make sure to lean into it.” Our fasting/feasting rotation helps with this – the fast helps us to feel our own need and smallness and limitation, the feasting helps us to feel the power of the Good Thing that's happened. It's also worth mentioning again that feasting takes work. Just like the relational payout makes the real work and forethought of putting together a dinner party worth it, it's worth exploring how your Easter celebration can keep your relationship with God expanding too!

Finally, one last big thank you to Dan and Alex, Jared & Rebecca, Mike & Kristen, for all their work in RCIA over the last year. Jared came into the Church and Mike was baptized at the Easter Vigil with their spouse and fiancé (respectively) by their sides after full participation in a few hours of classwork and discussion every Saturday morning for the last six or seven months, and Dan and Alex were there coaching, instructing, and guiding them the whole way. We'll get this program started again in a few months, but in the meantime pray for our new Catholics and give them a pat on the back when you see them.

God bless you! Fr. Joe

PCCW Spring Luncheon

The PCCW will be hosting their annual Spring Luncheon on Saturday, April 27. This event is open to all, not just the ladies, and the food is always delicious. St. Rose and St. Theresa Guilds will be serving this year. Each member of those guilds will be asked to bring a LARGE salad. Since many past attendees have asked for recipes of their favorite dishes we would like everyone to bring a recipe card with their recipe on it for others to see. Those interested can then make their own copy of the recipe. We will also have meat/cheese trays, croissants, and desserts. Our guest speakers will be Joyce & Roger Humfeld talking about their beekeeping and honey business. They will also have honey available for purchase at the luncheon.

Rice Bowls and Mite Boxes

It is time to turn in your boxes and bowls by dropping them in the collection plate. Be sure and include your name on the bowl/box if you want credit for it on your contribution statement.

Consider Attending with Local PCCW Members - Apr 13 Celebrate Life Convention - Abby Johnson Event

The guest speaker for the La Crosse Diocesan Council of Catholic Women's Biennial convention will be Abby Johnson. She is the author of Unplanned which was made into a movie. Abby is an anti-abortion activist who previously worked at Planned Parenthood as a clinic director, but resigned in October 2009. She states that she resigned after watching an abortion on ultrasound. Our PCCW will pay the registration fee for any members of St. Mary's who would like to attend. If you can't stay for the whole convention, come for the lunch and speaker. All those interested should contact Clarice Kammel (608-792-2198) as soon as possible. She will send in your registration.

DID YOU KNOW?

If you are 70 ½ or older, you can do a qualified charitable distribution (QCD) of up to $100,000 a year from your IRA directly to a charity. The distribution won't show up in your adjusted gross income and CAN count toward your required minimum distribution (RMD). The QCD allows you to be more strategic with your RMD. Consult your tax advisor before making any decisions. If a QCD is for you, please consider St. Mary's Parish as your charity of choice.

PLEASE REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS

- Those sick and suffering in any way, may they find healing and strength in our Lord.
- For military men and women who are supporting our freedom.
- Our political leaders, may their decisions be made for the good of all.
- For the people of Ukraine, Israel and Gaza whose lives have been affected by acts of war.
- For those fighting cancer, especially members of our parish.
- For children suffering with life threatening conditions and illnesses.
- The intentions listed in our parish Book of Prayer.
